

GARDENEast X

Only 2 minutes' walk to the hottest shopping district at Wan Chai - Lee Tung Street,
GARDENEast residents can enjoy up to

50% OFF
on Dining and Shopping!

Click to learn more about the offers now

Merchants' terms and conditions apply

JUNON New MENU

Chef Feed Me

Executive Chef Loic Catherine always went all around with his parents to discover different food cultures while growing up in France. These experiences lead Chef Loic to creativity and culinary expertise to create innovative dishes. From 1 Jun, JUNON is thrilled to launch "Chef Feed Me" 3-course dinner menu created by Chef Loic and team with seasonal ingredients that day. Book now and be ready to enjoy the savory creations!

From 1/6/2023
HK$588 per person

*Subject to 10% service charge

Reserve your table at www.junon.com.hk

JUNON
仙后餐廳
HONG HONG
SINCE 1967

JUNON's

📍 Shop 2, 2/F, Wu Chung House
☎ 2808 0882

Discover Wan Chai Gap Road: An Urban Oasis

A hidden gem in bustling Wan Chai - the tranquil Wan Chai Gap Road. This scenic destination offers serenity amidst the vibrant energy of our neighborhood and is perfect for a leisurely walk, jog, or casual exploration.

Wan Chai Gap Road, which starts at the intersection with Queen's Road East, and right across GARDENEast is a window into Hong Kong's nature and heritage.

3

Lovers' Rock

Visit the 9-metre-tall Lovers' Rock on Bowen Road, a granite monolith where many locals pray for a happy marriage and fertility to allegedly positive effect.

1

The Old Wan Chai Post Office

The Old Wan Chai Post Office has been renovated and now houses the Environmental Resource Centre. It is open to the public.

2

Blue House & Wan Chai Gap Road

On the ground floor of the Blue House, you can find the Hong Kong House of Stories. Take a guided tour to learn about the people and community of the Blue House Cluster.

4

Police Museum

The museum exhibits old uniforms, equipment, firearms, and other artefacts of Hong Kong Police Force.

Wan Chai Gap Road. It's not just a walk - it's an opportunity to reconnect with nature, history, and our beloved neighborhood of Wan Chai.

Credit: <https://www.discoverhongkong.com/eng/explore/great-outdoor/wan-chai-gap-road.html>